Antrim Baptist Church invites veterans to service today (Sunday, May 27)

Antrim Baptist Church would like to invite veterans and their families to attend our service on Sunday, May 27, as we honor our fallen Armed Services members. At the conclusion of the regular 11:00 AM service, the children of the church place flowers on the graves of all veterans in the Antrim Cemetery, next to the church. This will be followed by a short commemorative message for our veterans, a history of this year’s featured veteran, Orwill Mack, and the playing of Taps. It’s a great way to observe Memorial Day, honor God and remember our fallen heroes at the same time.

Antrim Baptist is located at 4509 Lovejoy Rd., Byron, one mile east of Fowlerville Rd. and about 8 miles north of Fowlerville. For questions contact Dave Roddy at 517-749-3410.

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War holding Memorial Day Service May 28

Gilluly/Kingsley Camp #120 Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War will be conducting a Memorial Day Service at Sanford Cemetery (aka Russell Cemetery) in Cohoctah Township this Monday, May 28, at 10 a.m. The cemetery is located on the north side of Chase Lake Road, west of Bryon Road.

This service will be commemorating the memory and rededicating the grave markers of two veterans of the American Civil War: Pvt. Edward Hadsell, Company H, 10th Michigan Cavalry, and Henry Kelly, Company D, 6th Michigan Cavalry.

Earl Campbell, great-grandson of Edward Hadsell, will be speaking a few words about his ancestor’s service, and Richard Hutchins, MSG-U.S. Army Retired, will speak about Henry Kelly. Prayers by the Camp Chaplain, a Color Guard and Bugler, along with a placing of flowers and flags at the graves will be part of the Service.

There will be a roll call of other men from Cohoctah who served during the War between the States: John Barlow, David Burton, Edward Downer, Alva Ellis, John Fish, Samuel Fisher, J.H. Hecox, George E. Houghtaling, John P. Johnson, William J. Johnson, Henry W. Kelly, Daniel Lott, Henry Lott, Daniel A. Neely, John D. Slider, Samuel Slider, Silas S. Sperry, Alvin Stage, William H. Vandercook, Robert K. Wriggelsworth, and Lorenzo Young,

The public is encouraged to attend this Service to help us remember the brave men that fought to keep this great country together those long years ago. Memorial Day was originally started after the American Civil War to remember the sacrifices of those who fought in that war. Eventually it came to be a day to commemorate those who gave their lives during all of the nation’s wars.

Hudson Mills Old Power Club holding Antique Tractor Show on June 1-2-3

The Hudson Mills Old Power Club is holding its 27th Annual Antique Tractor Show this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday (June 1-2-3) at the Fowlerville Fairgrounds.

The event offers a variety of activities that are designed to be family friendly and historically informative.

"This is our third year at Fowlerville," said Jason Verbison, president of the club. "Before coming here, the event was held at the Hudson Mills Metro Park in Dexter."

There will be three days of tractor pulls with modified tractors competing on Sunday. "We range from 50 to 150 tractors showing up," said Verbison.

New this year is a Garden Tractor Pull, put on by the Webberville FFA Alumni and scheduled for Sunday.

Gas engines, many of them dating to the early 20th Century, will also be on display. "We'll have working demonstrations showing how this early farm equipment was used," he added. "We'll show how an engine, using a belt, was used to saw wood. There'll also be antique machines powering corn and feed grinders."

Garden Tractors and the Antique Tractors will also take part in several games, including 'Push a Barrel.' A Kids Pedal Pull, meanwhile, is planned for Saturday.

In addition, the event features a Flea Market and Swap

Meet, Arts & Crafts, a Bake Sale, Classic Cars & Trucks, a 50-50 Drawing, and an Oil Raffle sponsored by Corrigan Oil. Other highlights include a Kids Barrel Train that will provide rides to the younger attendees.

Food and refreshments will be available as well.

The show is open on Friday from noon to 8 p.m., Saturday from 8 a.m. to dusk, and Sunday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Entry to the event is $5 per vehicle.

The club has around 65 members who reside in Livingston County and surrounding communities. Verbison is a second-generation member. "My father, John, is one of the founding members."

The club, he added, was started by Joe Chevalier who is still active.

Later this year, an Antique Tractor Pull will be put on by the club for two days during the Labor Day weekend at the Fowlerville Fairgrounds. The club is also putting on the Pumpkin Pull at the Munsell Farms Farm Market, 6850 Mason Road, Fowlerville, on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 6-7.

Fowlerville Girls Varsity Tennis Team completes season at Regionals

The Fowlerville Girls Varsity Tennis Team completed its season on Saturday, May 19, by finishing 6th (3 points) at the Haslett Regionals. Winning matches for Fowlerville were Coco Simons (1 singles), Michaela Walker/Olivia Olmsted (1 doubles) and Emily Radenbaugh/Bella Kuch (3 doubles).

Letter to the Editor

No, Father didn't always "know best". Yes, June Cleaver cleaned house in a dress. (I remember my grandma pulling weeds in her dress---that was all she wore.) These old shows reflected the times in which they were produced, although even then not every family fit the pattern. Was it wrong, though, to have a goal to strive for: a close knit group where the parents loved each other and their children and where they tried to teach honesty, obedience and respect for others? These comedies had heart while still being funny.

Now we see Mother as a shallow flake and teachers as ignorant and immoral bimbos to be made fun of. Aren't these the people that should be most revered and honored? Do we need any more proof that there are forces attempting to tear down the most basic institutions in our culture? No wonder we see more and more disrespect shown among young and old in our society. This, not the pun, is the lowest form of humor.

Fowlerville High School Class of 2018 to graduate this Sunday, June 3

The Fowlerville High School Class of 2018 will graduate this Sunday, June 3. The Commencement Exercises will take place at the competition gymnasium, starting at 2 p.m.

Over 200 seniors are expected to receive their diplomas, including 199 from the high school and the rest from the Fowlerville On-Line Learning Academy.

The afternoon program begins with the Senior Processional, with the high school band—under the direction of William Vlieg--playing Pomp and Circumstance. This will be followed by the singing of The Star Spangled Banner by the high school choir, a Welcome Address by the superintendent, Wayne Roedel, and the Presentation of the School Board by the board president, Mike Brown. High School Principal Bradford Lusk will be serving as the master of ceremonies.

Caden Collins will give the Class Welcome, Hannah Brock and Hannah Kubiak will offer the Sponsor Thank You, Rachel Zhang will present his Salutatorian Address, and Brittany Bush will give her Valedictorian Address.

Michaela Walker will introduce the guest speaker, Joshua York—a young man who, while attending Michigan State University, came up with the idea of creating and selling street-wear clothing and using some of the profits to help the homeless. He calls the endeavor the ‘York Project.’

After this, the Presentation of Diplomas will occur with Mike Brown, Bradford Lusk, Assistant High School Principal Eric Diroff, Athletic Director Brian Osborn, and Grace Damerow, principal of the Fowlerville On-Line Learning Academy taking part.

Fowlerville High seniors to walk the Grad Gauntlet on Friday, June 1

Fowlerville Community Schools and other well-wishers will celebrate graduation with this year’s seniors at the 2nd Annual Grad Gauntlet. On Friday, June 1, all soon-to-be graduates will take part in this event.

The Gauntlet is a graduate parade through all of the school buildings. The staff and students will be lining the halls to cheer on the grads! The parade starts around 10:15 a.m. at the high school. Parents and community members are invited to join the celebration as the graduates walk across the parking lot from the high school to the junior high. You can make signs, wave, and clap.

Senior parents have some big surprises planned for that short stretch across the parking lot. All attendees must park in the bus parking lot between the high school and junior high. Please respect that the high school is still conducting classes, and wait in the parking lot until the Gauntlet begins.

There will be someone in the parking lot directing you as to where to stand. Unfortunately, organizers can only estimate as to when practice will be over and the Gauntlet will begin. They are estimating the walk to the Junior High will begin around 10:15 a.m., but you may want to come early just in case practice goes quickly. Hope to see you there!

Fowlerville Varsity Softball Team splits games with Portland on May 17th

The Fowlerville Varsity Softball Team split its two games with Portland on Thursday, May 17. The Glads lost the opener 11-9, but rallied in a come-from-behind effort to take the nightcap, 6-5.

In the first game, Fowlerville took a 1-0 lead in the opening inning and were ahead 5-4 after two innings. Portland, however, scored three runs in the top of the third, while the Glads got one run during their ‘at bat’. The Raiders added another four scores during the fifth and sixth frames, while Fowlerville put up a run in the sixth and two more in the seventh—coming up short.

In game two of the CAAC White face-off, Portland got two runs in the first and second and two more in the bottom of the sixth. Fowlerville rallied with four runs in the seventh to tie the game at 4-4. They then blanked Portland in the bottom of the frame to send the game into extra innings.

Haley Szumlinski doubled in the go-ahead run in the 8th, took third on a wild pitch and then scored what ended up being the winning run on a single by Abrianna Stevens. Ahead 6-4, Fowlerville allowed only one run in what proved to be Portland’s final ‘at bat’ to earn a 6-5 victory.

For the two games, Miranda Prochnow was 6 for 8 at the plate, Leah Ash 4 for 8, and Abrianna Stevens 4 for 8. Ash pitched both games, striking out 18 Raider batters.

In game one, Sarah Matlock had 4 hits, while Ginelle Leslie was 3 for 5 and had 2 RBIs. The second game saw Peyton Boden drive in 2 runs with a key hit.

Fowlerville Girls Soccer Team defeats Lansing Sexton by 9-1 score

In the last home game of the season, the Fowlerville Girl's Soccer Team defeated Lansing Sexton 9-1. The Glads fielded a team of both JV and Varsity players for the game against Lansing Sexton and it led to a fun night of soccer! The Glads started scoring off with a goal by Jackie Jarvis early in the first half. Emilie Goetz got the credit for the second goal off a deflection by a Lansing Sexton player.

All of the scoring the rest of the night came from first-time varsity goal scorers. They included Amber Harmon, Chelsea O'Donnell, Quinn Soerries, Lilly Smith, Cierra Henley, Olivia Murray and Phaedra Nyman. Assists were by Audrey Trinka, Jacie Devota, Lilly Smith, Cierra Henley and Jackie Jarvis who had three assists in the game. Although Selena Lopez didn't have an assist, she was also doing her best to set up her teammates to score all game long.

Celeste Lineras played her first game in goal for the Varsity Soccer Team and did a fantastic job in her debut. Defensively, the Glads played a strong game and girls who don't normally play defense saw some time back there and helped to hold Sexton to one goal.

The Essentials of a Christian Home Part 2

“Listen, O Israel! The LORD IS OUR GOD, THE LORD ALONE. And you must love the LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, ALL YOUR SOUL, AND ALL YOUR STRENGTH. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.” (Deuteronomy 6:4-9).

The other night before going to sleep, I was watching the Gospel of John, video Bible. The last thing I remember before going to sleep was Jesus saying to the people: “You have eyes but you do not see. You have ears but you do not hear. You will die in your sins because you refuse to believe in the one God sent.”

The second essential for making a Christian home is that we must respond to God’s revelation of Himself. The only response that God will accept is a complete surrender of our hearts, mind and body to the one who has revealed Himself to us. This will take true love for the God of all creation.

“Where true love to God exists in the heart, it will manifest itself in a regard to His will, and in the diligent keeping of His commandments. Hence, His words were to be not only in the memory of the people, but laid upon their heart, that they might be ever present to the thought and will. They were also to be inculcated upon their children, and to be the subject of conversation on all fitting occasions between them, the members of their household, and even their casual associates. Thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children; literally, Thou shalt sharpen them to thy children, impress them upon them, send them into them like a sharp weapon” (Pulpit Commentary).

There are several passages of scripture in the Bible where God speaks about the unwillingness of His people to listen and adhere to His Word which was brought to them by prophet after prophet, and finally by Jesus Christ who is, was, and always will be. Jeremiah 32:33 says: “They have turned their backs to me and not their face; though I taught them, teaching again and again, they would not listen and receive instruction.” A hardened heart is a dangerous thing to have when it comes to accepting the truth of the scriptures, as Dr. Luke explains in the book of Acts. “For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear, and they have closed their eyes so their eyes cannot see, and their ears cannot hear, and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them” (Acts 28:27).

In the days when Jesus and His Disciples were preaching the gospel, their message was not gladly received by everyone. Only the people who were earnestly and honestly seeking God were able to hear and respond to the message. It is the same today, as people strive to achieve and fulfill the desires of their heart, they fail to benefit from this important teaching in the book of Acts.

As I look at the state of our nation, which seems hell-bent on repeating the same destructive ways of the Israelites, I find myself repeating the words of Jeremiah. “To whom can I speak and give warning? Who will listen to me? Their ears are closed so they cannot hear. The word of the Lord is offensive to them; they find no pleasure in it” (Jeremiah 6:10).

Spending hours in the Word every day; teaching our children about Jesus for long periods of time is not going to win you the ‘best parent of the year’ award. But it might help your children to take seriously the importance of developing a personal and intimate relationship with Jesus.

Jesus revealed Himself to us and faithfully carried out every task that His Father gave Him to perform. On the cross you could hear Him as he looked toward heaven and cried out the words, “It is finished.” Literally: “Father I have done all that you sent me here to do, now let me be glorified and returned to you from whence I came.”

For our home to be truly a Christian home, we must accept that Jesus is who He claimed to be; and we must also live as though we believe it. Our lives must not be given to chasing after the pleasure and treasure of this world. Jesus says to us in Matthew 6:19-20, “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.”

Everything we do that does not honor our Father in heaven can be said to be “storing treasures on earth.”

Seeking the treasures of heaven is to live our lives so that everything we do reflects the spiritual values of Jesus.

As an exercise for this week, take a piece of paper and divide it into two columns. In the first column, list all of the things you do daily to please yourself. In the other column, list the things you do because of your love for Jesus. The longest column will reflect what is most important to you.

The third essential for a Christian home is to have the truth of God’s Word governing the home. The parent must teach their children the truth of God’s revelation. God’s truths must govern the parent’s habits and conduct, both privately and publicly. Next week will be Part 3 of 3.

The Real Heroes

War has always been a unique endeavor. The ways it affects people and the ways it has been conducted throughout history are interesting to consider. When we come upon Memorial Day and think back to those brave service men and women who gave their lives for our country, we tend to picture them through the lens of popular stereotypes. We imagine them as steadfast heroes and protectors of the homeland who gave their lives gloriously on the field of battle. Patriotic music comes to mind along with a vision of the fallen comrade courageously breathing the last breath in service to the nation.

But war isn't much like that at all. We think of these images because we want to glorify those who have given all for us, and understandably so. We owe a tremendous and, in many ways, unpayable debt to those who have given their all to protect our freedoms and ensure we can continue to live in the greatest nation on earth.

However, we become too enamored with the picture of heroism that we often miss the reality of heroism. What do I mean by this? Over this weekend, people across the nation will commemorate Memorial Day, and they will give honor to the concept of service men and women who have given their lives. But at the same time, those people cannot be bothered to thank a veteran or give a hug to a gold star family.

We have constructed in our societal mind's eye the perfect image of a veteran. I think this is done with noble intentions in that we see them as heroes so in turn want to lift them up in greater appreciation and respect. That's great. We should give respect and appreciation to those who have sacrificed so much in their service to our great nation. But this perceived, perfect image results in what I consider to be a horrible tragedy. There are many who are so accustomed to this glorified image that they are turned off and cannot stand to be around those who actually served. The people who indulge in platitudes about honoring the fallen are the same ones who complain about the awkwardness of local veterans. What hypocritical piousness!

War is a practical animal bent on survival. If you think back to the very beginning with the Continental Army, very few of the rank and file soldiers and sailors served with patriotic ideals of grandeur. Most were there just trying to get a paycheck during a time when mere survival was difficult. Throughout the military's history, many of those who served did not start out with pure and patriotic intentions. It was a practicality. Yet, many of them still gave their lives. It's not a perfect picture. It's not how we imagine it. But to me, it is far more beautiful.

Despite the failures and difficulties and varied intentions, this broad array of men and women came together for one purpose: service to their nation. They may have been there for different reasons, but when push-came-to-shove, they were ready to stand with their brothers and sisters and ultimately give their lives if needed. They may not fit into the perfect stereotypical mold we have for them, but they are the real heroes. None of us are perfect, but despite imperfections, they rose above the rest. So, the next time you see an old veteran who has a stammer in his speech or a mother who tears up at the mention of her son, look beyond the immediate. Look past the imperfections. Remember the real heroes.

Memorializing Our Fallen Heroes

Memorial Day is here, and with it, all the summer festivities we love—parades, cookouts and long days in the sun. As we celebrate Memorial Day it is important to remember why we commemorate this holiday. It is a time to memorialize and honor those fallen heroes who have made the ultimate sacrifice to protect the liberties we continue to enjoy today.

In our fast-paced lives, it’s easy to take for granted the great and unique freedom we experience every day. Some of our most valued rights, such as the right to free speech, the right to own property and the freedom of religion, are nonexistent in other countries of the world. These rights, along with our many other freedoms, are what make living in the United States so special and keep the pursuit of happiness within reach.

These are the principles and freedoms for which thousands upon thousands of brave men and women have given their lives. It is because of these sacrifices that we celebrate Memorial Day. This holiday is not only a way for us to pay homage to those who have died defending our nation’s liberties, but it’s also a thought-provoking reminder that we should never take for granted the freedoms with which we have been blessed.

Modern-day threats to our way of life, our liberties, and our rights certainly exist. The sources are both internal and abroad. Socialist sentiments among misguided youth, religious extremism, and apathy from the general public are all examples of internal pathologies. These unpatriotic tendencies trivialize the sacrifices made daily by those who served or are serving in the armed forces, as well as the sacrifices of their families and loved ones. As liberty-loving citizens, it is important for us to understand our obligations to protect and nurture freedom. We should ask ourselves what we can do to protect our rights and carry on the American legacy that so many servicemen and servicewomen have died to protect.

This holiday weekend, please take time to honor and remember the many brave men and women who gave all to protect and ensure your freedom. Look for opportunities to thank those actively serving in the armed forces, as well their blue and gold star families. Participating in community events honoring and recognizing their sacrifices is a great way to give back.

With that being said, have a wonderful long weekend. Take in the summer sun, eat an ice cream cone, go camping or spend time with family and friends. Intentionally enjoy and appreciate your freedoms and your rights in this great nation.

Fowlerville High School Band back from recent trip to New York City

The Fowlerville High School Band recently completed a trip to New York City. The band traveled from May 16th to 19th. While in New York, the band visited Ellis Island, the Statue of Liberty, the 9/11 Memorial and Museum, the USS Intrepid aircraft carrier, Times Square, Rockefeller Center, Central Park, and Radio City Music Hall.

In addition to their tourist destinations, the band also received a rare opportunity; they were able to spend three hours with an assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic, Michael Adelson. During their clinic time with Mr. Adelson, the band was able to experiment with different ways to perform certain selections as well as ask him questions about life as a professional musician in a big city. Both students and Mr. Adelson, alike, commented on how much they were able to pull away from their time together.

That evening, the band was able to catch a live performance of the New York Philharmonic. The concert was an extraordinary opportunity for students to hear one of the world’s foremost orchestras. The following evening, the band attended a Broadway show, “Come From Away”. The musical is based on real life events surrounding the events of 9/11, which caused incoming air traffic originally destined for New York City to be rerouted to a small airport in Newfoundland, Canada. The musical was the highlight of many students and adults alike.

All in all, 110 travelers took the trip. Upon return, most travelers agreed that this was a trip worth repeating!

Fowlerville ‘Friends In Focus’ has been meeting for around 60 years

By Dawn Horton

Some sixty years ago one of the community groups in Fowlerville was the Child Study Club, comprised of young mothers. They met on a regular basis and forged friendships. While the children eventually grew up, these mothers continued the club, changing its name to ‘Friends In Focus’ and adding new members

This past Tuesday, May 22, they met for their May meeting at the Grille in the Ville for lunch. Doris Bowers, the co-hostess for the day, brought several vintage hats for each one to wear. She noted that these hats were part of a collection she’s accumulated over the years. They included ones that belonged to her mother, Ruth Schultz; a cousin, Ruth Casady; Nellie Glenn, the wife of Dr. Glenn; and Vance Sherwood, the mother of Jack Sherwood. A few others she had purchased years ago at Ruth’s Re-Sale when that store was located in Downtown Fowlerville.

Along with providing one of these hats for each of the ladies to wear, Doris passed out a small bag that contained a candy bar. On the front of the bag was the first letter, then blank spaces, and a saying designed to provide a clue. Each lady had to guess what kind of candy bar was inside the bag. In fact, the game was called “Guess What Kind of Candy Bar is in Your Bag.”

It didn’t turn out to be too difficult, since apparently these ladies were familiar with the different kinds and names of candy bars.

DTE Energy & Consumers Energy accelerate plans for cleaner energy

Consumers Energy and DTE Energy last week announced that they are accelerating plans to produce cleaner energy in Michigan, targeting at least a 50 percent Clean Energy Goal by 2030– achieved through a combination of investments in at least 25 percent renewable energy, and the remaining through energy efficiency.

In the past year, both DTE Energy and Consumers have announced plans to reduce carbon emissions by more than 80 percent in the coming decades. Leveraging the already aggressive framework established in Michigan’s 2016 bipartisan energy law, the state’s two largest energy companies are advancing their plans to invest in Michigan. This is in conjunction with an agreement by Clean Energy, Healthy Michigan (CEHM) to place aside a ballot proposal to increase the state’s renewable portfolio standard.

Michigan’s two energy companies have been cited as industry leaders in their commitment to transform the way they produce energy: retiring coal plants and increasing wind and solar generation. Both DTE and Consumers will demonstrate how they will achieve the 50 percent Clean Energy Goal by 2030 in their respective Integrated Resource Plans.

DTE Energy Chairman and CEO Gerry Anderson and Consumers Energy CEO Patti Poppe released the following statement:

“We appreciate that Tom Steyer and the sponsors of Clean Energy, Healthy Michigan have taken the time to understand our commitment to carbon reduction and how Michigan’s energy plan puts the tools in place to achieve this goal in a thoughtful and affordable manner. Our two companies are overwhelmingly in favor of renewable energy and are focused on bringing additional energy efficiency opportunities to our customers. We will continue to work within the framework put forward by our legislature and regulators to build on our environmental initiatives to benefit all residents of the state.”

About DTE Energy

DTE Energy (NYSE:DTE) is a Detroit-based diversified energy company involved in the development and management of energy-related businesses and services nationwide. Its operating units include an electric utility serving 2.2 million customers in Southeastern Michigan and a natural gas utility serving 1.3 million customers in Michigan.

About Consumers Energy

Consumers Energy, Michigan’s largest energy provider, is the principal subsidiary of CMS Energy (NYSE: CMS), providing natural gas and/or electricity to 6.7 million of the state’s 10 million residents in all 68 Lower Peninsula counties.

Student of the Week—Rachel Zhang

Congratulations to this week’s star student, Rachel Zhang! Rachel is currently a senior at FHS. Rachel comes from a family of one sibling, Richmond, plus her hardworking and caring mom and dad. As for her family, Rachel said that she loves to eat dinner with them. Her current school schedule consists of AP Chemistry, Human Anatomy, AP Calculus, AP 2-D Studio Art and Dual Enrollment at LCC. Rachel’s favorite class is AP 2-D Studio Art because this class allows her to showcase her creativity.

Her favorite teacher is Mrs. Hesch because she “is always supportive and encouraging.” Rachel was nominated by many of her teachers and staff this year. Mrs. Hardenbrook, her National Honor Society advisor, stated, “Rachel is a very caring and sweet girl that puts others’ needs before her own. She has worked so hard to graduate with high honors and continue on her education.”

Rachel’s favorite thing about FHS is learning from all of the great teachers. Rachel said that she will miss all of these teachers she had throughout the years and the comfortable routine of high school. After high school, Rachel plans to attend Michigan State University to study science. Her advice to underclassmen is, “To always challenge yourself and to take advantage of your education”

Outside of school, Rachel enjoys spending time with her family and working at her parent’s restaurant. Rachel has many interests and favorites such as: favorite movie is Zootopia, favorite artist is Taylor Swift, favorite TV show is Strong Girl Bong, and favorite book is Legend. If she had to travel anywhere, Rachel would travel to China to visit her grandparents.

Rachel’s favorite quote is, “No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted.” On top of this inspirational quote, Rachel said that her parents inspire and motivate her, explaining they have “sacrificed a lot for our family.”

Congratulations, Rachel and good luck after graduation!

Kreeger third graders write editorials on ‘why people should donate food’

My name is Stephe Harper, and I teach third grade at Kreeger Elementary in Fowlerville. A while back my class read the book Joey and the Giant Box, a story about a boy who repurposes a refrigerator box to collect food for a local food bank. My students had the idea to do the same, so we are collecting food for our own food box.

This food (and other supplies) will be donated to the Family Impact Center, and we’ll be collecting food from now until June 7. Donations can be brought to the designated container outside the office at Kreeger. We’d love for you to help fill our box!

Don’t take my word for it, though - here are the opinions of a few of my students on why you should (or shouldn’t) donate to our food box.

Should people donate to our food box? I think yes. People could die if they do not get food for a while. It would be sad if someone without food dies one day. I have seen it on TV sometimes and it is sad. If you do not want people to die, you should donate to Ms. Harper’s food box.

Sincerely, Ella Shaw

I think so stores can stay open. So the stores can donate food and money. Some people starve. That could have been you or me!

1. So people can stay alive.
2. So people can have food.
3. And to be nice.

We will give them the food to stay alive.

-Evah

I think that people should get food for the food box. It’s being a good friend to others, and it helps people who need it. I’m saying this because I am training to be nice and that’s what people like to see. I think that because it’s being nice to do something that’s nice! So it’s nice to do what your heart says to do and it helps other people not to die! Yes! They should because it’s nice to do things you like.

-Maddy H.

Should people donate to our food box? Yes, people should donate to our food box. People need food. Our food goes to starving people. People can starve in ten days or less in the winter. What if you were them? No person would help you. You could feel the ache of starvation. You would not be happy. Yes, that’s why I think people should help bring food.

-Evan

I think people should get food because people who are poor don’t get food. Our food box would give food to poor people. People who are poor don’t get food. People who are poor can get food. If you donate food, they get food. People who are poor don’t get food or don’t get a home. People who are homeless can get food. People who are poor should get food. That’s why we should get food.

-Shawn

Should people donate food to our food box? Yes! Of course; who wouldn’t? “Why?” you may ask. Some people need food, right now! If they don’t get food, they could or will die! They need the food you donate!

Also...stores can stay open! Stores need stuff (like food) to stay open. People buy food from stores. So if people only have one store around close to them and it’s CLOSED, they could starve!

I think people should donate food to OUR food box!!

-Ava

Do you think people should give food to our food box,

Some of the students in Stephe Harper’s third-grade class at Kreeger Elementary are shown here making donations to the Food Box. They are hoping members of the community will help them fill it by June 7. The Box will then be sent to the Family Impact Center. From left are Phoenix Minton, Hudson Eastwood, Ava Smith, Hadyn Budd, Rylee Gullede, Chloe Cory, and Evah Polzin.

‘cause I DO! People who are sick and poor can get food to help them live. You should bring in food to help people who don’t have money to buy food. Some people in the world don’t have food so be grateful for food. Donating food would help everyone in the world that gets is. People who are poor and sick can get what they need to survive.

-Ayden

Do you think people should donate food to our food box? I do because it will help people who are poor and sick. It will help old old people who can’t get out of their beds. It will definitely help kids with no parents or guardians to protect them from other people who hurt others. It is very important to get healthy foods for your family to stay alive. Also it is good for their families to drink water. You could donate... bottled water! So they can stay hydrated and they won’t have to go to a river every time they are thirsty. Hydration is very important to others in the world! People would be so grateful and thankful for all that food we will get for them. I think people should donate to our food box because people need food or they will die! And we do not want them to die! So if people are dying we can save them by donating food to the sick and poor people in the world.

-Hadyn

Yes, you should donate. My mom only has $20. She can only buy us cereal! I have only 1 piece of food in my lunch. You are helping people. You are being kind, too. You will have more friends because you are helping people. That’s why you should donate.

-R

Should people donate to our food box? Yes, I think they should donate. It helps the poor and it makes you feel good. I think that because then people who don’t have food get food. And they won’t have to starve.

Do you think people should donate to our food box? Well, I do because you need food to survive. You put food out of the way so people can afford clothes. If you donate to our food box, the small stores won’t go out of business because if you buy the stuff, the stores can afford more food. The people who can’t work or are sick can go to the food box and get food. If you get sick you can’t work so you won’t get money for food. If you go to the food box, you eventually can afford medicine. This is why people should donate to our food box.

-Hudson

Yes, we should give people food.

- People will die with no food.
- People will be hungry all day with no food.
- They will start the apocalypse.
- And they will fight for it.

That’s why we should give people food.

-Kellen

You should donate food to our food box because homeless people can eat. They don’t die. Also, stores stay open because you buy stuff for the food box. You should donate food to our food box.

-Phoenix

I think that we should bring in food for our food box because the starving people need food to survive. So if someone is sitting on the side of the road you should give that person a dollar so I think that we should bring in food for our food box.

-Gabe

We should donate because people will die without food or water. People are very cold. We should donate. It would be very nice. If we donated a house and food or wood so they can make a house but we would need to give them nails and a hammer. It is good to donate. That is why we should donate. How would you feel if you were starved?

-Maddy D.

You should donate food to our food box so they can survive. Some people don’t have food. If people have enough money to buy food, then the people that don’t have enough food can get food. If a lot of people die that is a closer chance of people becoming extinct. People might die of starvation. That’s why people should donate food to the food box.

-Matthew

Yes, people should donate food because it helps people that don’t have money. People who don’t have enough money could die if they don’t get food. Next, who wants people to die? I don’t. Do you? No! If they die, a lot of people will be sad. For example, who likes to die? No one likes to die! Finally, stores can close down if you don’t give food. They might close down. Do you want them to close down? That is why I think you should donate to our food box.

-Kiersten

Yes, I think you should give food to our food box. People need to live and if people don’t live, they could die and that would be very sad. That would also be nice to give food to

Senators Hune & Warren host veterans, guests at reception last Thursday

Each year the Michigan Senate hosts military veterans for an honorary Memorial Day Service. This year, the 24th annual service was held on Thursday, May 24.

For those attending, a breakfast was served on the first floor of the Capitol. Afterwards, veterans were able to witness a special service held in the Senate chambers from the visitor’s gallery. After that session, Sen. Joe Hune of Fowlerville and Sen. Rebekah Warren of Washtenaw County hosted a lunch reception for veterans and guests from Livingston and Washtenaw Counties in the Binsfeld Office Building, across from the Capitol.

From left were Cindy Denby from State Rep. Hank Vaupel’s office, State Senator Joe Hune , and David Mester, a Fowlerville resident who is a member of the Marine Corps League and the American Legion.

From left are Sen. Rebekah Warren and Sen. Joe Hune (the co-hosts of the event), with Livingston County Veteran of the Year Charlie Brock and Sen. Judy Emmons.

Michigan House Report

By Dr. Hank Vaupel, 47th District

This past week I introduced a bill bringing awareness to potential issues with fetal alcohol syndrome for expectant mothers. Because the U.S. Surgeon General warns there is no safe amount of alcohol to consume during pregnancy, this legislation requires that an establishment that sells or serves alcoholic beverages must post a sign with the following message: “Pregnancy and alcohol do not mix. Drinking alcoholic beverages, including wine, coolers, and beer, during pregnancy can cause birth defects.”

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) are estimated to occur at a rate of 1 out of every 100 live births. These disorders are entirely preventable if we increase knowledge about the effects of fetal alcohol exposure. Children are the most important resource in our state, and FASD pose a serious threat to the potential health of our future generations. It’s up to us to do increase awareness for alcohol’s harmful effect on pregnancy.

Last Monday, I was present at Voyager Elementary as the school received a $500 grant from Delta Dental for its library. The scholarship was awarded as part of a March is Reading Month program in recognition of the great reading programs in Howell Public Schools. Congratulations to Voyager, and thanks to Delta Dental for investing in our schools.

I was honored to attend the public officials appreciation service at Victory Baptist Church in Hartland. It was an encouraging and heartfelt ceremony with a very welcoming atmosphere. Thank you to Pastor Ryan Guenther and the entire congregation for your prayers and support.

I had the opportunity to stop by the 10th annual Caregiver Fair organized by the Livingston County Consortium on Aging. The Caregiver Fair is a very beneficial event providing seniors and caregivers the information and help they need. Great job by all involved.

Last Saturday (May 19), Rolling Thunder Michigan Chapter 5 held its annual Ride to Remember from Hartland Township to the Livingston County Courthouse in Howell for a ceremony honoring fallen servicemen and women and those missing in action. Local officials gave speeches recognizing the sacrifices of those in uniform, and a gold star mother shared her powerful story. May we never forget what was given for our freedoms.

As we approach Memorial Day this Monday, it is especially important to remember the men and women who have served in all branches and have made the ultimate sacrifice. I hope you have a blessed and safe holiday weekend, but let us keep in the forefront of our minds the real meaning of the day.

If you have any ideas, comments or questions for my office, please do not hesitate to call us at 517-373-8835 or send an email to HankVaupel@house.mi.gov. We are happy to hear from you!

our food box. You should care about people. That’s why I think you should give food to our food box.

-Rylee

Do you think people should donate to our food box? Well, I do!

I think you should donate to our food box because there are kids and adults that starve because they cannot find a job. Therefore, they die. But we can put that to the end IF YOU help! Another reason why you should donate is that we can help stores stay open. For example, some stores have to close because they don’t have enough supplies and if they don’t have enough supplies then people won’t come. If people don’t come to the store has to close but we can stop that if you donate!

-Brooke

Do you want to donate? NO! It’s like you buy the food and then throw it away. You are technically wasting your money. You could buy better things. Sure, you are helping people, but you are not helping you. What if you go hungry? You will regret it. I recommend not to donate to the food box.

-Evalyn

I think people should donate food to the food box because some people don’t have money to buy food. It’s nice to donate food. Also people could die from no food. Some countries don’t have great food like China. People should be nice to poor people even if you don’t know them. That’s why I want people to donate to the food box.

-K-Rose

Fowlerville veteran offers poppies

Phil Tatus continued a personal tradition when he stood outside Great Lakes Restaurant last week, accepting donations for poppies. He was doing this, as he has for the past several years, on behalf of the Orson A. Rose Post 215 American Legion Auxiliary. A resident of Fowlerville, Phil belongs to the American Legion and is a Vietnam War veteran. All monies collected from the donations during Poppy Days go directly to veterans' activities. Fowlerville's paper poppies are made at the Veterans' Hospital in Grand Rapids.
