Conway Board votes 3-2 against putting internet bond proposal on ballot

The Conway Board voted 3-2 against putting a bond proposal on the November General Election ballot that would have allowed the Township to sell bonds for the purpose of making high-speed internet available to residences throughout the township. Mike Rife, the supervisor, and Larry Parsons, a trustee, joined Rick Kreeger, a trustee, in opposing the resolution, the two of them reversing their earlier support.

Todd Anderson, the clerk, and Debbie Grubb, the treasurer, supported the motion.

The decision was made at last Tuesday’s (May 15) regular meeting, with about 50 people in the audience. During the Call to the Public, several people spoke both for and against putting the request before voters.

The proposal was to borrow around $5.7 million, the estimated cost for installing fiber optic lines to all areas of the township. The money would have been paid back over a 20-year period with revenues collected from a special tax levy.

Initially, the estimate was that the annual payment needed to service this debt would require just over 2.5 mills in additional property taxes. That figure, however, was changed to over 3.5 mills.

The board and a room full of residents had heard a presentation on the project and what it would cost during a special meeting on April 10. At this session, the estimate of 2.517 mills was given. The board subsequently voted 4-1 to put the request to sell the bonds on the August Primary ballot. The lone dissenter was Kreeger.

However, at the regular board meeting held the following week (April 17), the board was informed by its bonding counselor that a more conservative figure would be 3.5395 mills. The attorney also pointed out that the proposal was to sell bonds to finance the project, not set a millage rate. He added that an exact levy would be determined after the bonds were sold.

This higher estimate caused Rife and Parsons, along with Kreeger, to support putting the proposal on the November General Election rather than the Primary ballot, with the board to consider this revised resolution at its May meeting.

This unexpected increase in the estimated millage rate, the possibility of additional costs that wouldn’t be covered by the bond issue, and the adverse effect the extra taxes would have on farmers and other large landowners were reasons Larry Parsons cited for opposing the resolution.

“The change in the millage rate shocked me,” said Parsons. “We had a full house at the (earlier) April 10th meeting and people left, thinking the amount would be around 2.5 mills. When we learned a week later that it more likely would be over 3.5 mills, I was very concerned that we (the board) had unintentionally misled people.”

Parsons, who has been on the board for nearly 27 years, said his decision to oppose the resolution “is by far the most difficult one I’ve had.”

“Between the April and May meetings, I did as much research as I could,” he said. “Do you allow people to vote on this matter and express their desire, or take it away—which is very serious?”

Parsons said the extra cost this tax levy would impose on farmers and its possible adverse effect on their livelihood caused him to choose the latter course.

“I felt the farmers needed protection,” he said. “They would bear the largest share of this $5.7 million cost, yet they no longer have sufficient numbers to exert a voice at the polls.

“In surveys that have been done, preserving open spaces and farm land is high on residents’ list,” Parsons pointed out. “That priority is reflected on our Master Plan. Placing this additional cost of operation on our farmers puts that goal at risk.”

He also cited an uncertainty on what the project might cost as another factor in his change-of-mind.

“The only township in Michigan to have approved a special tax levy for bringing high-speed internet to its residents is Lyndon Township in Washtenaw County,” Parsons said. “It was approved by voters last August. I’ve talked with the supervisor there several times. He told me that after nine months, he still doesn’t know how much it will cost. He told me that he’s learned a lot of lessons during that time since passage, adding that everyone has cost the township money.”

Parsons said that while he has confidence in what the township consultants have told the board concerning the installation costs, additional costs could occur, including needing extra help to administer a system after it became operational.

“Should we run short with the estimates or have other costs besides building the system, the money would have to come from the General Fund,” he said. “The price, when all is said and done, could be high.”

Michigan DNR Fishing Tip--

Using stick/body baits when fishing for trout

Trout season is well under way with many anglers using dry flies and spinners. But what if you’re interested in waging battle with the largest trout in the river? Have you considered using stickbaits or body baits?

Many avid trout anglers swear by using these types of lures if you’re looking to catch big stream trout. Stickbaits and body baits mimic the minnows and small fish many trout species love to eat.

Keep in mind you won’t catch large quantities of trout when you’re using this type of bait, but the ones you do find will be high-quality and worth the effort. Consider fishing with lures you’d normally use when targeting bass and/or northern pike and stick with natural colors for the best chance of success.

Student of the Week—Faith Holmes
By Dalaija Franklin

Congratulations to this week’s star student, Faith Holmes! Faith is currently a senior at FHS. Faith comes from a family of two siblings, plus her mom and dad. With her family, Faith loves to watch movies.

Her current school schedule consists of History Through Film, AP Psychology, College Math and Trigonometry, Zobotany, College Prep English, and Marketing I. Faith’s favorite teacher is Mr. Collins because she’s had Mr. Collins for three classes, and has learned a lot from him. Her favorite class currently is AP psychology. Faith thinks the class’ material is very interesting.

Faith was nominated by many of her teachers this year. Mr. Collins stated, “Faith is a very responsible and dedicated student. She is also very reflective and insightful when it comes to the material that is covered in class, and she regularly participates and shares her thoughts in class as well. She’s a positive role model as a student for her peers in the classroom.”

Faith’s favorite thing about FHS is how small the school is. Though she’ll miss FHS, Faith looks forward to keeping her good grades and leaving high school. After high school, Faith plans to be a small animal veterinarian. Her advice to underclassmen is, “Don’t fall behind. Keep up with your work.”

Outside of school, Faith enjoys spending time with her boyfriend and working at Old Navy. Her favorite memory is going to Florida with her friend Madi over spring break. Here, she made lots of good memories. Florida also happens to be Faith’s favorite place she has visited because it is the only exciting place that she’s been to. Another favorite memory of Faith’s is her friend Dannielle falling up the stairs. Faith’s favorite movie is Spirit, favorite band is Atlas Genius, favorite TV show is Bates Motel, and favorite book is Gone Girl. If she had to travel anywhere, Faith would travel to Africa to go on a safari.

Faith’s favorite quote is, “You don’t have to be great to start, but you have to start to be great.” She loves this quote because it is a good motivator to do what you want, even if you’re not the best at it. On top of this inspirational quote, Faith’s mom inspires and motivates her to do her best every day.

Congratulations, Faith and good luck after graduation!

Fowlerville Junior High student still seeking donations for security cameras

With the recent school invasion of Highland High School in California on May 11th, it reinforces there can never be too much security in our schools. The fact is that there has been at least one school invasion per month since January 2018.

School safety is why Falyne Murphy chose her service project for NJHS. Please help her reach her goal of raising $1,000 to install more security cameras at the Fowlerville Jr. High School. You can make a donation directly to the Fowlerville Jr. High School, Attn: Ms. Lillie/Falyne Murphy Project. Checks can be made payable to Fowlerville Community Schools. We are also accepting bottle/can returnables. If you can donate any returnables, please call Sandra at 248-789-0487.

Michigan House Report

By Dr. Hank Vaupel,
47th District

This past week in Health Policy Committee, we approved a bill I sponsored updating Michigan’s Assisted Outpatient Treatment law, commonly known as “Kevin’s Law,” to ensure we take care of mental illness earlier to curb homelessness, dangerous behavior and incarceration. This is not only better for individuals with mental health care needs, but also saves tax dollars by reducing the state’s hospital and incarceration costs. The bill now moves to be considered by the full House in the coming weeks.

On Tuesday, I was present for a seminar on senior citizen scams hosted by the Fowlerville Police Department. The presentation was held at the Fowlerville United Brethren Church and included guest speakers from Adult Protective Services and Livingston County Catholic Charities. The discussion covered various types of scams and how they can be avoided. It is concerning to hear how far some will go to take advantage of seniors, but prevention is critical to fixing this problem. Thank you to Chief John Tyler for coordinating the event and providing such beneficial information.

I am proud of the students, teachers, and staff at Challenger Elementary for receiving the 2018 School Wellness Award! Each year, the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services recognizes schools that are creating a healthy and safe environment for children to learn. The program is designed to encourage schools to work together in finding ways to improve. The excellence displayed at Challenger Elementary is commendable. Congratulations to Principal David Cherry and all the students, teachers, staff, and parents!

I had the opportunity to meet with a group of local nurses attending the Michigan Nurses Association Advocacy Day at the Capitol this week. I was able to listen to the issues they face in the workplace and discuss possible solutions. I am thankful for the daily passion and hard work they show in helping others in need.

Memorial Day observances being held in Fowlerville & Webberville next Monday

Memorial Day observances are being held next Monday, May 28, in Fowlerville and Webberville.

A parade and ceremony will take place in Webberville starting at 8 a.m. The parade will line up at the high school and then proceed west on Grand River to the Veterans Monument at the Main 4 Corners. Services will then be conducted.

At 10 a.m. the parade will start in Fowlerville. Participants will line up at Veteran’s Drive on the west end of town and then head east through the downtown to Greenwood Cemetery. Services will then be conducted at the site of the memorial cannon.

Kelly Lott, the Fowlerville Postmaster and a veteran, will emcee both services.

The Poppy Story

From the battlefields of World War I, weary soldiers brought home the memory of a barren landscape transformed by wild poppies, red as the blood that had soaked the soil. By that miracle of nature, the spirit of their lost comrades lived on.

The poppy became the symbol of the sacrifice of lives in war, and represented the hope that none had died in vain. The American Legion Auxiliary Poppy has continued to bloom for the casualties of four wars, its petals of paper bound together for veterans by veterans, reminding America each year of the men and women who have served and died for their country.

Poppy Day has become a familiar tradition in almost every American community. This distribution of the bright red memorial flower to the public is one of the oldest and most widely recognized programs of the American Legion Auxiliary.

This poppy, as a memorial flower to the war dead, can be traced to a single individual, Miss Moina Michael. She was so moved by Col. McCrae’s poem that she wrote a response:

...the blood of heroes never dies

But lends a luster to the red

*Of the flower that blooms above the dead
In Flanders’ Fields.*

On impulse she bought a bouquet of poppies, all that New York City’s Wanamaker’s Department Store had, and handed them to businessmen meeting at the New York YMCA where she worked. That was November 1918. World War I was over, but America’s sons would rest forever “in Flander’s Fields”. Later, she would spearhead a campaign that would result in the adoption of the poppy as the national symbol of sacrifice.

Red paper poppies will be available in the Fowlerville area on May 24, 25 and 26. Representatives of the American Legion Auxiliary, Orson A. Rose Post 215 will be in the community soliciting donations for the poppies. All monies collected go directly to veterans’ activities. Fowlerville’s paper poppies are made at the Veterans’ Hospital in Grand Rapids. While the local ALA is an inactive unit, two major activities the post still participates in are “POPPY DAYS” in May and “THE CHRISTMAS SHOP”, both activities are for veterans in the VA hospitals.

On Being Great

I think it's fair to say that most people want to be great. We want to feel like we have an impact on history, and we want to be recognized for our contributions. However, there is unfortunately a widespread misconception on what greatness looks like. We are used to seeing the movies or reading books where the hero charges forth to victory while handily overcoming all challenges before being celebrated and cheered by thronging crowds. We see this template so often that we start believing that is how it's actually supposed to work. If we do not have some epic trial to overcome or have an enamored fan base, then we feel left out and think we must not be achieving greatness.

Rather than this cliched rubric for greatness, I believe there are three things that are needed to be truly great. First, there has to be hard work. Sure, the heroes on TV are put through difficult challenges and struggles, but the opportunity to show greatness is usually just handed to them with very little effort on their part beforehand.

After all, they have to fit all that greatness into just a one-hour block! In the real world, achieving greatness is not something that typically happens overnight. In modern terminology, we have to 'grind.' It's about doing the hard thing even when everyone else has gone home and we have to finish the job alone.

Closely tied to hard work is the need for patience and commitment. Back to that idea of 'grinding.' Hard work only goes so far if you only do it once! I have worked with several people over the years who would complete one major project and suddenly believe they are qualified to be the boss. Yeah, it's great they got that job done, but there are many more tasks to do. When you are always the one doing the majority of the work while everyone else goofs off, it can quickly get discouraging. That is why you have to determine to be committed before you ever get started. Make that promise to yourself, and then stick with it. If you expect to achieve greatness after your first victory, then you'll immediately get burned out when it doesn't happen the way you want. Instead, we need to be prepared to show some patience.

The third component is humility. Just as commitment ties in with hard work, selfless humility is bound to patience. After all, it's hard to be patient when you think the world revolves around you! We have been taught through popular media that greatness is determined through public recognition and respect. People have little self-esteem since they are constantly waiting for someone else to praise them. However, greatness does not require outside recognition. In fact, some of the greatest people out there never receive the respect they deserve. They are simply satisfied to patiently work hard and do the best they can do regardless of external praise or condemnation. They can encourage themselves and take personal satisfaction in the job they are accomplishing. It can be a difficult pill to swallow since we are accustomed to seeing the opposite, but greatness can be found through humble, committed hard work.

Three Essentials for a Christian Home Part One

“Listen, O Israel! The LORD IS OUR GOD, THE LORD ALONE. And you must love the LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, ALL YOUR SOUL, AND ALL YOUR STRENGTH. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates” (Deuteronomy 6:4-9).

Some may think the words above don’t apply to us today. I hear so many people make the statement that the things in the Old Testament are not relevant any longer; that times have changed. Times have changed, and we as people have changed, but God has not changed and neither has his Holy Word.

I am constantly amazed by the fact that the Bible, written so long ago, is still relevant today. In Matthew 24:3, Jesus tells us, “Heaven and earth will pass away but My words shall not pass away.” Again in Isaiah 40:8, God assures us, “The grass withers, the flower fades, but the Word of God stands forever.” The Bible has stood the test of time. The words of wisdom found in Scriptures of old, still hold true today.

History has also proven God’s Word to be true. The truths and principles therein are as applicable to our lives as they were to the lives of Abraham, David and the Apostle Paul.

So when I read Deuteronomy 6:4-9 and I hear Moses telling the Israelites that “The LORD IS OUR GOD, THE LORD ALONE. And you must love the LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, ALL YOUR SOUL, AND ALL YOUR STRENGTH. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today.” I take those words seriously.

As a Christian, it is my responsibility to know and to apply God’s Word to my daily walk through life. Loving God with all my heart, soul and strength is as relevant to me today as it was to the Israelites when Moses was leading them.

But as time elapses, God and His Word, is losing its place of prominence in the hearts of those who profess the name of Christian. If we’re honest, we will admit that our fear and reverence for God has dwindled down to little more than an acquaintanceship. We are not as passionate about our relationship with God as we are in other relationships we have with mere mortals. We are not teaching our children and young people, as the scriptures instruct us in verse seven of our text.

We do not spend the time with our children that is necessary to help them develop a good and healthy relationship with God. We don’t talk about the things of God with them when we are with them. We don’t get down on our knees with them and pray as often as we should. We don’t teach them again and again as the scripture instructs us. Is it no wonder that so many of our young people are leaving the church in search of happiness and fulfillment in other things?

This nation was started and has prospered more than any other nation in the modern age because it was formed on, and relied on Christian principles and Christian values. The Christian family was the foundation on which this nation was built.

But all of that has changed. The picture of a Christian family today doesn’t look anything like it did in ages past.

Most parents are so busy they don’t have the time to spend with their children. With both parents working out of the home every day, their schedules are so full of things on their ‘to do’ list until taking time out to spend quality time with their children doesn’t often happen.

We are losing generation after generation of young people because we have trained them to believe that happiness and success is found in their ability to achieve more, and be better than someone else. We can’t love the Lord our God with all that is in us, if we’re constantly seeking what only he can give from other sources.

We have taught our children by our behavior that the accumulation of money, fame and status is more important than seeking after God. We have trained them to be just like us, because no matter what we tell them, they are going to imitate what we do, more than what we say. When they see us as parents, chasing after every fleshly desire of our human nature, more than likely they will follow in our footsteps.

The first essential for a home to become a Christian home is a revelation of God. Those living in the home must believe that God is God. They must have a healthy fear of Him and believe everything it says about Him in the scriptures. They must also believe that Jesus is His Son who came to earth to live out the perfect example for us to follow and accept Him as their redeemer.

Moses wanted the people to understand that following God has to take precedence over every priority in our lives. “Where true love exists in the heart, it will manifest itself in a regard to His Will, and in the diligent keeping of His Commandments”; the believer can keep the Commandments of the Lord only by understanding that Christ is the Source, while the Cross is the Means; when our Faith is anchored exclusively in Christ and His Cross, the Holy Spirit will keep the Commandments through us (Pulpit Commentary).

The second component for making a Christian home is we must respond to God’s revelation of Himself. The only response that God will accept is a complete surrender of our hearts, mind and body, to the one who has revealed Himself to us. This will take true love for the God of all creation.

What You Need to Know About Reverse Mortgages

Dear Savvy Senior,

What can you tell me about reverse mortgages for retirees? My wife and I are contemplating getting one but want to make sure we know what we're getting into.

Running Short

Dear Running,

For retirees who own their home and want to stay living there, but could use some extra cash, a reverse mortgage is a viable financial tool, but there's a lot to know and consider to be sure it's a good option for you.

Let's start with the basics.

A reverse mortgage is a unique type of loan that allows older homeowners to borrow money against the equity in their house (or condo) that doesn't have to be repaid until the homeowner dies, sells the house or moves out for at least 12 months. At that point, you or your heirs will have to pay back the loan plus accrued interest and fees, but you will never owe more than the value of your home.

It's also important to understand that with a reverse mortgage, you, not the bank, own the house, so you're still required to pay your property taxes and homeowners insurance. Not paying them can result in foreclosure.

To be eligible, you must be 62 years of age or older, own your own home (or owe only a small balance) and currently be living there.

You will also need to undergo a financial assessment to determine whether you can afford to continue paying your property taxes and insurance. Depending on your financial situation, you may be required to put part of your loan into an escrow account to pay future bills. If the financial assessment finds that you cannot pay your insurance and taxes and have enough cash left to live on, you'll be denied.

Loan Details

Around 95 percent of all reverse mortgages offered today are Home Equity Conversion Mortgages (HECM), which are FHA insured and offered through private mortgage lenders and banks. HECM's also have home value limits that vary by county, but cannot exceed $679,650.

How much you can actually get through a reverse mortgage depends on your age (the older you are the more you can get), your home's value and the prevailing interest rates. Generally, most people can borrow somewhere between 50 and 65 percent of the home's value. To estimate how much you can borrow, use the reverse mortgage calculator at ReverseMortgage.org.

You also need to know that reverse mortgages have recently become more expensive with a number of fees, including: a 2 percent lender origination fee for the first $200,000 of the home's value and 1 percent of the remaining value, with a cap of $6,000; an upfront 2 percent mortgage insurance premium (MIP) fee on the maximum loan amount, plus an annual MIP fee that's equal to 0.5 percent of the outstanding loan balance; along with an appraisal fee, closing costs and other miscellaneous expenses. Most fees can be deducted for the loan amount to reduce your out-of-pocket cost at closing.

To receive your money, you can opt for a lump sum, a line of credit, regular monthly checks or a combination of these.

More Information

To learn more, read the National Council on Aging's online booklet "Use Your Home to Stay at Home" at NCOA.org/home-equity. And see the National Reverse Mortgage Lenders Association self-evaluation checklist at ReverseMortgage.org/consumerguides.

Summer gas rules return to Southeast Michigan counties, starting June 1

Ozone monitoring will return to eight counties in Southeast Michigan as extra measures are implemented to lower smog levels in the area. Effective Friday, June 1, Lenawee, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw, and Wayne counties must only sell or dispense gas that does not exceed 7.0 pounds per square inch vapor pressure.

The summer gasoline program was introduced in 1996, due to monitored violations of the National Ambient Air Quality for ozone, as outlined in the EPA's Clean Air Act, in the Detroit area. Enforcing the low-RVP requirement by MDARD ensures Michigan continues to receive federal highway funding dollars.

"Summer formula gasoline increases fuel efficiency and helps smog-causing compounds from being released into the atmosphere," said Craig VanBuren, Laboratory Division Director, Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development. "MDARD inspectors will be conducting on-site testing during the summer gas season, which runs from June 1 to September 15."

MDARD, as part of its duties under Michigan's Motor Fuel Quality Act, Public Act 44 of 1984, is charged with enforcing ozone protection measures in addition to assuring the quality of the gasoline being dispensed in the state.

Anyone who suspects problems at the pump is encouraged to call MDARD's 24-hour hotline for reporting complaints, 1-800-MDA-FUEL (1-800-632-3835).

Also note that because reverse mortgages are complex loans, all borrowers are required to get face-to-face or telephone counseling through a HUD approved independent counseling agency before taking one out. Most agencies typically charge around $125. To locate one near you, visit Go.usa.gov/v2H, or call 800-569-4287.

Government is not a replacement for individual effort

Some Americans have been misled into believing that government can be a solution to all sorts of everyday problems: Need extra cash for bills or services? Government can provide it. Overhear some speech that you found in poor taste? Government can stop it. Upset at the price of a certain good or service? Government can fix it. These are radically misguided views that jeopardize our individual freedoms and destabilize the legitimate roles of government.

The Constitution of the United States of America outlined the few, modest duties of the federal government, and none of the above are listed among them. The assumption was that these needs and any others that may arise would be met by private enterprise, state or local governments, the faith community, or voluntary groups of individuals.

When we as citizens neglect our civic duties and instead demand that government step in, we relinquish our freedom for the sake of convenience and we invariably limit our other options once we've discovered that government is not a good champion of our desires.

There are countless examples of how government dependence actually harms the recipients instead of lifting them up. Worse still, private charity dries up when potential do-gooders assume that government can and will handle all private suffering. With sky-high taxes to pay for growing entitlements, the individual, too, has fewer resources to help on his own accord, and a spiral of government dependence occurs.

When we allow government into more arenas of our lives for support, we open ourselves up to ever more coercive or predatory governance. Suddenly that government health plan is dictating what kind of medical care you receive, and those government food stamps are prohibiting your children's favorite foods.

It's our duty as free people in a republic to protect our liberties for ourselves and for posterity — not to lazily outsource our problems to government.

Famed economist and thinker F.A. Hayek put it well when he said: "By giving the government unlimited powers, the most arbitrary rule can be made legal; and in this way a democracy may set up the most complete despotism imaginable."

As always, if you have any questions or need information, please contact my office toll-free at 855-JOE-HUNE or email my office at SenJHune@senate.michigan.gov and my staff will be happy to assist you. My website, www.Senator-JoeHune.com, is also a good resource.

Library Board & Village Council reach agreement on former library

The Fowlerville District Library Board and its staff are busy moving into the new, larger facility on South Grand Avenue, with the re-opening scheduled for Friday, June 15. Meanwhile, there's the task of selling the previous library building on Mill Street, next to the Fire Hall.

To accomplish this, the Library Board and the Fowlerville Village Council needed to reach an agreement on the Village selling the land where the old library is located.

What caused this situation is that, prior to the formation of a District Library, the Library was an entity of the Village of Fowlerville and administered by an elected Village Library Board. When the decision was made in the 1960s to build a library on Mill Street, it was erected on Village-owned land.

The agreement reached by the two local government bodies is that once the building is sold, the Library Board will pay the Village $52,500. Marion Cornett, president of the Library Board, explained that the figure is based on $4-a-square-foot multiplied by the size of the building.

"The Fowlerville District Fire Board recently purchased the site where the fire hall is located from the Village for that square footage price, so we felt it was a good figure to use," she said.

Cornett said that the Fire Board is not interested in purchasing the building, so it will be appraised and then offered for sale.

Nancy Couse

Nancy Couse, 51, of Fowlerville, MI, passed away Thursday, May 10, 2018 surrounded by loved ones at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. She was the fiancé of Jeffry Lapham with whom she shared five years of love and support.

Born in Saddlebrook, NJ, she was the youngest daughter of the late Walter and Virginia Weglarz. She graduated from Hancock High School in New York. Later in life, she worked as a stay-at-home mother and most recently worked at Curtis Grocery in the deli department.

She enjoyed golfing whenever she could, making jewelry, vacations at the family cabin, good music, and socializing with all the good people around her. She will be remembered for her bright smile that lit up the room, her addictive laugh and sense of humor, and most of all, her loving nature that was uniquely Nancy. She was a wonderful spouse, mother, sister, aunt, and friend to all that knew her.

Nancy is survived by her fiancé, Jeffry Lapham; her children, Frank and Tiana Couse; her stepchildren, Sara Lapham and Helen Lund; and all her friends and family.

Services were held on May 18, 2018 at the Herrmann Funeral Home in Fowlerville. Visitation occurred from 9 – 11 a.m. The ceremony began at 11 a.m. with Pastor Jeff Howard officiating. A luncheon followed at the Oak Lane Golf Course in Webberville.

"And I loved deeper, and I spoke sweeter, and I gave forgiveness I've been denying, and he said someday I hope you get the chance, to live like you were dyin'" – Tim McGraw, Nancy's favorite song.

Please leave the family a condolence at piherrmannfuneralhome.com.

The Fowlerville High School Art Department would like to introduce Bianca Henley, the ‘Artist of the Month’ for May. She has created a composition with Converse Shoes in graphite pencil. She added a splash of color to make it pop! Bianca has always liked to draw, even when she was little. She was home schooled for awhile and then joined us in the Art Department. She has been involved with the High School Art Club, Track, Softball and 4H. She would like to attend Lawrence Tech to become an architect. She is currently painting a mural in the band wing of the high school and she was the recipient of the Visual Art Scholarship from the Art Department.

Howell Garden Club to present evening of floral creativity on May 23

Join the members of the Howell Garden Club for an evening of floral creativity this Wednesday, May 23, when Lisa Waud brings her presentation of the “Flower House”. The event begins at 6:30 p.m. with a social hour, followed at 7 p.m. with the program. It will be held at the Livingston County Public Safety Complex, EMS, located at 1911 Tooley Rd., Howell—off of M-59.

Lisa Waud is the founder and owner of Pot & Box, a floral design and horticultural décor studio in the Detroit area. Lisa has filled an abandoned Hamtramck house with American-grown fresh flowers (along with 37 designers and 100 volunteers), creating beauty from blight. Lisa has received international recognition for her creation.

Her presentation describes the dream-come-true project from idea to exhibition. Discussion will be held on why this creation has proven to be so magnetic to so many people across the country. Her talk includes the planning and execution through the themes of risk taking, logistics and collaboration, and her power point of gorgeous images takes you along with Lisa on her journey.

The public is invited to this event. It’s free, although donations are appreciated.

Fowlerville Senior Center seeking donations for repaving parking lot

The Fowlerville Senior Center is seeking donations for repaving the parking lot at its facility on North Collins Street. Dean Snider, president of the Senior Center Board, shows two of the larger potholes located in the center of the lot, examples of the deterioration that's occurred.

Snider said that the cost of milling off the old asphalt, putting in a new base, and applying fresh asphalt has been estimated at around $35,000. "We don't have this much money in a budget, so we're seeking help from the community," he said.

‘Bring Smiles to Seniors’ collects cards, then sends them to elderly

By Diane (Esch) Hill

‘Bringing Smiles to Seniors’ is based on the premise that nearly everyone loves getting a card and that the message on it will cause a smile. This nonprofit was started in March of 2016 by Ron Tyson of Florida to honor his grandmother.

We collect cards from individuals, schools and civic groups. Then we write messages in the cards and/or glam them up with three-dimensional stickers. The final step is delivering the cards to nursing homes, assisted and independent living facilities.

As a new retiree, I was put in touch with Ron Tyson and the Michigan program has started. Through the support of Ron and his Florida team, the Michigan program reaches out to facilities in Howell, Williamston, Haslett, Okemos, East Lansing, Lansing, Holt, Laingsburg, Perry and DeWitt. We reach approximately 750 seniors each time we deliver.

The cards provide joy to the residents especially those made by children. Our nonprofit encourages the circle of life- children to seniors.

Webberville-based ministry to host free family conference on Saturday, June 9

Fowlerville native offers tips for carefree living

Every day, people face challenges that leave them feeling helpless and overwhelmed, resulting in damaged health and broken relationships.

“People are burdened with the cares of their finances, or the cares of their families, or the cares of their health,” said Rachael Pico of Life Abundant Ministries. “But we’ve been instructed to cast our cares at the feet of Jesus.”

Life Abundant Ministries will offer practical strategies to combat worry, fear, and doubt as part of ‘Carefree: The 2018 Family Faith Conference’. The event, set for Saturday, June 9, at the Lansing Center, features authors and speakers Rachael and Bryce L. Pico.

Rachael Pico (née Fraser), a Fowlerville native, did not foresee a career in ministry, much less serving as president of a nonprofit organization. But things took a drastic turn after her best friend took her own life.

“I made the decision that I would not let this just be another thing that happened in my life,” said Rachael. “It wouldn’t be just another dot on my timeline.”

According to Rachael, many people have a fundamental misunderstanding about who is behind the chaos and loss in their lives. In those cases, it’s often God who gets blamed for depression, disaster, sickness, and death.

“The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy,” said Rachael, quoting John 10:10. “Let’s be clear, here, we are talking about the enemy of God, the enemy of His people, and our enemy – the devil.”

Through live teaching, books, and media resources, the Webberville-based ministry works to reveal God’s loving kindness at work in today’s world. Their purpose is to educate people about the abundant life offered by Jesus Christ.

“We are a ministry geared toward teaching, equipping, and empowering the members of the Body of Christ so that they may live life to the fullest,” said Rachael. “We want people to know who God is, who they are, and what their relationship is with Him.”

Admission to the event is free (childcare is not provided). Sessions begin at 10 a.m. The Lansing Center is at 333 E. Michigan Ave., Lansing. To register, or for more information, visit Life Abundant Ministries; website, www.life-abundant.org.

Mike Kelly of Champion Chevrolet of Fowlerville presents Webberville FFA Member Cassandra Jones with a $1,000 Chevy Truck National FFA Scholarship.

Webberville student awarded National FFA Scholarship

A Webberville student has been awarded a National FFA Scholarship. Cassandra Jones, a senior and member of the local chapter, received a $1000 Chevy Trucks Scholarship that is part of this overall program.

Presenting Cassandra with a check for that amount was Mike Kelly of Champion Chevrolet of Fowlerville.

The National FFA Organization and Foundation has awarded more than $2.5 million in scholarships. More than 8,000 students applied for scholarships. The average recipient had a GPA of 3.75 on a 4.0 scale and were in the top 16 percent of their class. The selection process takes into account the whole student, including FFA involvement, work experience, supervised agricultural experience, community service, leadership skills and academics.

Chevrolet has supported the FFA Organization for over 67 years, based on the historic connection between traditional agriculture and Chevy Trucks.

Scholarships are awarded to a high school senior or college student pursuing a two- or four-year degree or specialized training certification in any major.

For over a century, Chevrolet has been a passionate believer in the power of ingenuity and innovation in our quest to find new roads. Chevrolet and its dealers—including Champion Chevrolet of Fowlerville—are proud to participate in the FFA collegiate scholarship program in support of our long-standing relation with the National FFA.

Febreze Air Care Recycling Fundraising Opportunity.
The Fowlerville High School Life Skills class is proud to announce our partnership with terricycle that will pay us for recycling! The items that we will be collecting are air freshener cartridges and plugs, Air freshener packaging and flexible film, Air Freshener plastic trigger heads, Febreze One bottles with trigger heads and Febreze ONE refills. We will be paid $1/lb of waste we send to terricycle. What I love about this is we do not have to sell anything and we can expand our recycling efforts that my class is already highly involved in. The money that we make will go toward more community based instruction opportunities, and cooking supplies for our life skills class. We have drop boxes at the high school in room C201, at Little Glads, UB church in the student center and at the Fowlerville Library. If you have a business or organization that would be willing to promote and have a drop box added to your location, please contact Deanna Ragland at 223-6145 or e-mail raglandd@fowlervilleschool.org
