The Makings of a Great American

How can we be greater Americans? We, as Americans, seem to constantly be on a quest to achieve more things and be better people. We want to steadily improve, and that is an admirable goal. However, that can be a very difficult thing to do sometimes (surprise!). In fact, it can even be challenging at times to determine what it is that makes people great and what we should be trying to achieve. This could arise because we do not always agree on what greatness is, and even when there is a general consensus on this, we still have to discover the formula for success. What traits should we possess?

Take, for example, the American military in the Pacific during World War II. Now there was a group of heroes that I would hope most could agree were great Americans. The picture of six Marines raising an American flag over Iwo Jima is perhaps one of the most iconic symbols of the United States Armed Forces and for good reason. Throughout the Pacific campaign, those brave men represented to the world the excellent qualities that America had to offer, and I think those traits are worth a look for our own application.

First, they showed determination. The fighting that took place

The meal will include four varieties of the American classic, macaroni and cheese, A “Fiesta” version will be offered as well as “St. Pat’s Favorite Mac,” with a twist on corned beef and cabbage. A salad bar and brownie sundae bar will round out the menu. Tickets for the meal and the concert are $10 per person and are on sale now. Starts: 7 p.m.

in the Pacific was some of the most tedious and horrifying of World War II. The Allied forces practiced a strategy known as “island hopping.” Since the imperial Japanese forces were spread out across many small islands, the Allies were forced to carefully and strategically move their troops and assets from island to island as they conquered each one along the way. This was no small task. The Japanese forces were very embedded and put up an uncompromising resistance to the Americans’ advance.

Second, the American forces in the Pacific were willing to endure hardship. The combat for these islands was brutal. Surrender meant a fate worse than death as they would almost assuredly be viciously tortured and then killed anyway, but the continuous fighting was an ultimate test on their physical, mental, and emotional capacities. Real life horrors both from the fighting and from the rough environments of the islands were constantly around the American troops. But somehow, they endured. They accepted the seemingly insurmountable challenges and completed the duty set before them.

So, why did they do all of this? The pain and extreme struggles suffered by the American military in the Pacific were catastrophic, so what caused them to endure such tragedies? I’m sure that there were different specific motivators for each person there, but I think there was one overarching reason. The third trait that they possessed was a vision of the future. They knew that they had a reason to fight. They were protecting their families and country, and they were securing peace for the rest of the world. They kept that purpose in front of them to remember that there was indeed a cause for which they were fighting. No matter our challenges in life, whether dealing with stress in the work place or fighting for our country, we need to have determination, resiliency, and above all, vision.

OK2SAY – Stop the silence, Help end the violence

In times of national crisis like war or the threat of terrorism, Americans are often encouraged to take ownership over their community security. For example: “If you see something, say something” – goes the Department of Homeland Security motto.

But this is far from just a slogan; this idea is something that should live in the heart of every citizen. Helping to build an upstanding, productive and safe community is the duty of all Americans. As a free people, we are co-dependent on each other to monitor risks and to check dangers – including dangers from each other and from our government.

Our country is an extraordinarily safe place to live thanks to the efforts of our law enforcement officers, the civilians who support them and remarkable advancements in policing

Plans underway for 125th annual Fowlerville High Alumni Banquet

Plans are well underway for the 125th annual Fowlerville High School Alumni gathering and banquet. The event will be held on Saturday, June 9, 2018 at Fowlerville High School. According to Alumni President Judy Recker, the alumni will pretty much follow the format of past years. A social hour will begin about 4pm followed by pictures of the “honored classes” beginning at 5:15 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:30p.m. Rooms will be available for the honored classes to meet and socialize.

Tickets will be available on or after May 1st at either Reggie’s Barber & Beauty Shop, 127 N. Grand Avenue, or the Fowlerville News & Views, 206 E. Grand River. Tickets remain at $15 each. You are encouraged to purchase your tickets early. Tickets at the door will be $20.

The FHS Alumni Association plans to continue presenting scholarships to graduating seniors who will be recognized at the banquet. Anyone wishing to make a donation may send the donation to Ed Helzerman, 701 Devonshire, Fowlerville, MI 48836. More information will also be available soon. Classes planning to gather are encouraged to contact Cindy Ruttman Krebs, ASAP, at 517-223-8747 to reserve a room and to be included in the program

To the best of Recker’s knowledge, there are several living graduates from the Class of 1938.

“Hopefully they will make their 80th reunion,” she said. “Alumni 2018 will be a really special occasion for the Classes of 1938, 1943, 1948, 1953, 1958, 1963, 1968, and 1993,” continued the president. “So mark your calendar and make plans to attend the 125th annual FHS alumni gathering this year.”

technology. But this doesn’t excuse us from our obligations as citizens. That’s where programs like OK2SAY come in to help us keep our communities safe.

OK2SAY is a state-wide, confidential reporting system for anyone who has information about a student safety threat. The program focuses on early intervention and prevention of violence and is meant to eliminate the barriers to voicing concerns that plague so many school environments. Anyone can submit a tip by text message, phone, through the website, through the mobile app or by email.

OK2SAY has specially trained technicians who review the tips and filter the information out to the appropriate agency to respond in a timely and effective manner. The program also offers free safety seminars for students and adults to help members of the school community understand what to look for and how and when to submit a tip.

In the four years that the program has been active, it has had promising success. OK2SAY not only preempts acts of violence, but it also lets the school community deal with other problems like helping those with suicidal thoughts or combating drugs, sexual misconduct, gang issues and bullying.

Freedom is the most precious thing that Americans have, but with freedom comes responsibility. Ask yourself if you are doing your part to keep America a safe and prosperous place to live, and please look at the OK2SAY program if you have children in school or if you know someone who does.

Fowlerville Business Association learns about proposed electric power plant

By Steve Horton

Members of the Fowlerville Business Association learned more about the proposed gas-fired electric plant in Handy Township during its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday. John Hafner, the project developer for Competitive Power Ventures (CPV), gave a presentation that explained what's being proposed at the local site, how the plant would operate if it is built, what would occur during the construction phase, and what steps the company needs to complete during the current due diligence phase. He also gave a brief history of the company.

Hafner said that the company is "strong on community outreach" and wants to keep residents and other stakeholders informed on what is being proposed and how the project is progressing. As part of that outreach effort, he gave a similar presentation to the Fowlerville Rotary Club at their meeting the following day.

At the FBA meeting, the audience also heard comments from Handy Township Supervisor Ed Alverson about the proposed project and what the Township Board and officials have done to deal with it.

CPV has taken an option-to-purchase on 125 acres in the southeast corner of Handy Township that are owned by two local families. The site was chosen because it is close to natural gas supplies and has easy access to high-power electric lines, two factors that would keep construction costs lower.

One of the sources of natural gas would come from the Vector pipeline that runs in a southwest to northeast direction through the area. The second source is the Rover pipeline that was brought up recently from the south. As planned, at the spot where the two lines intersect, a valve station is being constructed that connects them. This valve station is located next to the 125 acres.

In addition, an ITC electric transmission line, which runs in a north-south direction, borders the property on the east side.

The land is located next to the Fowlerville Proving Grounds, which is zoned

Research & Development, but the rest of the adjacent area is agricultural and residential. A number of those neighboring residents attended recent Handy Township Planning Commission meetings to voice their opposition to the project. Other residents, though, expressed their support.

Hafner began with a brief history of the company, noting that it was formed in 1999 and currently has around 80 employees working primarily at offices near Boston and Washington, D.C., with a small office in San Francisco.

"We have six plants that have come on line or will soon be in operation during the past six years," said Hafner. "These include two sister plants in New Jersey and Maryland that are in operation, one in Connecticut and another in New York that will both be in operation by the end of the year, a plant in Pennsylvania that's about two years from completion, and another gas project in operation in California."

Hafner, in an earlier interview, had said that the company is at the start of a two-year due diligence phase that includes having the land rezoned to Research & Development by the Handy Township Board, gaining information and obtaining necessary permits from county, state, and federal agencies (including the Michigan Dept. of Environmental Quality and

Jud Scott

JV Boys Basketball

Wesley Latson - Wes just completed a fantastic sophomore season for our boys JV basketball team. He is a fundamentally sound player who continues to improve through his hard work. A very versatile player, Wes has created matchup problems for our opponents with his size and athleticism. Wes has demonstrated the ability to attack the basket for a layup or to stretch the defense for a jump shot. A skilled passer, Wes has shown an unselfishness on offense and always puts the team first. Look for Wes to do great things in the future for our program!

Nolan Southgate - Nolan is a freshman who is a regular starter on the JV basketball team. All season long he has given the team a boost with his energy. Nolan is a quiet leader who leads by example. He has been a consistent rebounder and is often assigned to guard the opponent's best player. When not playing solid defense, Nolan has been a reliable scorer as well including a recent 21 point effort versus Lansing Catholic. He's a pleasure to coach and has a tremendous upside in the future. Great season, Nolan!

Every week through the season two Fowlerville H.S. athletes will be saluted for their efforts. Athletes will be selected by the coaching staff and Athletic Dept. For that "Winning Deal" on a new or used car or truck, see Dick Scott Motor Mall.

the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency), and looking at the financials.

He had also said that construction takes about two-and-a-half years. “If the project goes forward, the earliest we’d start construction would be in 2020,” he said. “So the earliest the plant would be in operation is late 2022 or early 2023.”

Hafner told the FBA members that the company is proposing to build a combined cycle facility that is air cooled. He then explained that there are two types of gas-fired electric plants—a single cycle and a combined cycle. Both types mix and ignite compressed air and high temperature natural gas in the gas turbine to create exhaust heat.” The exhaust heat, in turn, spins the turbine blades which rotates a generator that produces electricity.

“With a single cycle plant, the excess exhaust heat is lost,” he said. “What we do with a combined cycle facility is capture the exhaust heat released by the gas turbine, in a heat recovery steam generator, to create steam which is then routed to a steam turbine to generate additional electricity.”

He noted that approximately two-thirds of the energy output is created by the gas-fire heat and another one-third by the steam. “With this combination, we’re able to produce more energy for the same amount of gas and have a cleaner operating plant,” Hafner said.

The excess steam exiting the steam turbine needs to be condensed. There are two options—a water-cooled system which involves using cold water to do the job and an air-cooled system that uses air to do the job.

“We still use water to create the steam, along with other plant processes, but the average amount needed would be 400,000 gallons a day compared to a water-cooled system that needs three-to-five million gallons.”

Hafner also noted that natural gas, using this technology, provides more energy. “Our proposed gas-fired plant has an efficiency rate of approximately 60 percent as compared to coal plants that are at 20 to 30 percent,” he pointed out.

Depending on what happens, the plant will either be built to produce 600 megawatts which would provided electricity for 600,000 homes and require an investment of $700 million or enlarged to 1,200 megawatts which would service 1.2 million homes with an investment of $1 billion.

Hafner said that the actual plant would have a footprint of 20 to 30 acres and be located in the northwest area of the property. That would be a half-mile north of Mason Road, where the entrance drive is expected to be located, and a third of a mile west of Truhn Road.

The economic benefits he listed, in addition to that huge capital investment, would include using 300 to 500 employees at different stages of the construction over the two-and-a-half-year period, hiring 25 fulltime employees with an annual payroll of over $3 million, creating 75 indirect jobs through outside third-party services, becoming the largest taxpayer in Livingston County, and enhancing economic development in the region by offering a closer proximity to electric power.

A couple of points that Hafner brought up were that the company has committed to contracting union workers from Michigan during the construction and that, once operative, the plant would have staff on site around the clock.

Questions were raised by the audience on water usage, air emissions, and noise.

Hafner pointed out that the company has to meet standards set by the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Regarding water use, Hafner offered comparisons between other high-volume users in the area and the 400,000 gallons a day the plant would need. One of them is the MHOG (Marion, Howell, Oceola, and Genoa) Sewer & Water Authority that services the four townships in the greater Howell area. The MHOG wells that are located in this area of the county are rated at four to five million gallons a day, meaning they can withdraw that much water.

“A center pivot irrigation system uses around 300,000 gallons a day when it’s in operation on a farm field, and all of the golf courses in the county, combined, can use over a million gallons a day,” he said.

As to concerns expressed by area residents that this usage might adversely impact them by lowering the water table, it was stated that the well would be drilled much deeper into the aquifer than is the case with residential homes.

He said that there is little discernable noise outside the fences, so that would not be a problem.

Regarding air quality, Hafner said that the plant will have one or two stacks used to disperse emissions (depending on whether the plant produces 600 or 1,200 megawatts) and that a stack is normally 160 to 250 feet high, depending on final air modeling.

He explained that extensive modeling and testing is done so that emissions coming from the stack are below the standards set by the EPA to maintain air-quality. The impact of the emissions on soil and vegetation is also modeled to ensure safe conditions.

On the question about noise, he said that this would not be a problem. “Noise is barely discernable if you’re standing outside the perimeter fence,” Hafner added.

In respond to another question, Hafner said that power plants in Michigan have in the past been built and operated primarily by DTE Energy and Consumers Energy. A number of plants, though, are coming off line or will be shut down in the coming years, he pointed out.

“There will be a lot of power replacement needed in the future with coal and nuclear plants shutting down in the state,” he said. “As a private company, we see this as an opportunity to compete. That’s what brought us into Michigan. We can sell electric power to public utilities, municipalities, co-ops, and other large-volume energy providers.”

Hafner said that he looked at over a dozen sites for a plant, adding “We feel we’ve found the right one for us in Handy Township.”

He also told the audience that oil or natural gas will not be stored on the site. “All the gas will be tapped off the nearby line and can immediately be shut off by a valve if there’s a problem,” he added.

Handy supervisor Ed Alverson, during the question-and-answer portion, provided background on how the Township has responded to this proposed economic development.

“When I was initially told a big project might be coming to this area, I figured it was a large production plant,” he said. “When I learned about the electric plant, my first thoughts were water, air quality and the effect on the environment.”

Having never dealt with this type of development project and having nothing in the zoning ordinance dealing with power plants, the board gave me permission to hire a law firm with this kind of expertise to assist us,” he said.

Alverson pointed out that if the Township Board chose to “just say no,” it would be in violation of Michigan law.

“Our legal counsel told us if we did that, ‘open up your check book’,” he noted. “Any legitimate business, except for medical marijuana dispensaries, has the right to locate in the Township. If we don’t make provisions in the Master Plan and have an area zoned for this use, the business can go to circuit court and the judge will make the decisions for us.

“I don’t know what Competitive Power Ventures will decide, but given the proximity of the two gas lines and the electrical transmission line, someone’s going to eventually build a power plant in this area,” he said. “To give you an idea, five days after we were contacted by this company, a second company called.”

Alverson said one step the Township has taken is to draft a proposed amendment to its zoning ordinance that would make a gas-fired power plant a special use in a RD district and spell out requirements that have to be met to obtain site-plan approval.

At a recent meeting, the township planning commission approved changing the Master Plan to include the site in the RD District. The members also recommended the ordinance amendment be adopted along with a request by the property owners and CPV to rezone the 125 acres from Agriculture Residential to Research & Development.

Those two measures have been forwarded to the Livingston County Planning Commission for its review and recommendations. The meeting to consider those will be held March 21 at 6:30 p.m. at the Livingston County Administration Building, 304 E. Grand River, Howell.

The two proposals will then be taken up by the Handy Township Board, which makes the final decision on April 10 at 7 p.m. Anticipating a larger crowd than can be accommodated in the Township boardroom, this meeting will be held at the Fowlerville Junior High.

FOWLERVILLE COMMUNITY SCHOOLS RECEIVE STATEWIDE 2018 EDUCATION EXCELLENCE AWARD-- Fowlerville Community Schools will receive a $2,500 grant from the SET SEG Foundation in partnership with the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) at their 7 p.m. board meeting on March 13 at the Fowlerville High School Media Center. The district has been awarded a 2018 Education Excellence award for Kreeger Elementary's program, Kreeger Popcorn Crew.

The Kreeger Popcorn Crew has general and special education students working side-by-side in a full assembly line process, taking orders, filling boxes, counting money, and keeping an inventory of popcorn sold. Students then hand deliver the orders throughout the school. They currently fill more than 500 orders per month. The Kreeger Popcorn Crew program involves student from a variety of backgrounds and skill sets and builds work ethic and life skills through socialization and team building. Each crew member depends on the accuracy of others, so they focus on quality control and communication. With the award money, larger popcorn machines will be purchased so the program can keep up with the demand.

"It's an honor for us to recognize Fowlerville Community Schools and their educators, and to help support and advance their efforts," said Lisa Truscott, SET SEG Foundation Executive Director. "Dedicated, passionate teachers and staff in public schools are what help provide opportunities to learn, grow and build brighter, stronger futures for students and our communities and state."

The Education Excellence Awards are in their 25th year and are produced through a partnership between the SET SEG Foundation and MASB. This year, in celebration of the anniversary, the SET SEG Foundation awarded $2,500 grants to 25 extraordinary Michigan public school programs. Education Excellence Award recipients receive a $2,500 check to grow their program, an "Education Excellence Winner" road sign, and trophy. This year, the SET SEG Foundation received hundreds of applications from schools throughout Michigan working to have a positive impact on their students and community.

The SET SEG Foundation is a branch of SET SEG and is fueled by its mission to enable students to pursue enrichment opportunities that advance learning, leadership and civic responsibility by providing services, scholarships, grants and financial support directly to Michigan public schools and Michigan public school students. 7th Annual Maison Z. Wilkinson Scholarship Fundraiser this Saturday

The upcoming 7th Annual Garage Sale & Fundraiser will be held this Saturday, March 19, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Junior High gym.

Organizers have been accepting donations for the Garage Sale for the past few weeks. Those items will be on sale. There will also be a 50/50 Raffle, a Silent Auction, a Bake Sale, and Concessions. Monetary donations are also welcome.

The money will help fund the Maison Z. Wilkinson Scholarship. In the fall of 2006, Maison (who was a young boy at the time) was killed in a traffic accident. His parents sought a way to memorialize him, so the following May the family gave away scholarships at the Fowlerville High School Senior Honors Night. One of the criteria was that the recipients played soccer, a sport the young boy loved.

The family continued presenting this scholarship to graduating seniors for the next several years, but funding it was becoming a challenge. Then in March of 2012, the Fowlerville Junior High Friends of Rachel group, with its teacher-advisor Amy Jarvis, decided to hold a Garage Sale & Fundraising Day as a service project. Their goal was to raise money for this scholarship.

Fowlerville Girls Varsity Basketball Team captures Class B Districts

The Fowlerville Girls Varsity Basketball Team captured the Class B District Championship held at Haslett on Thursday, March 1, with a 48-33 victory against #4 ranked Williamston. Elie Smith led the team with 14 points, Ollie Updike and Grace Wallace had 9 points, Jackie Jarvis had 8 points.

A stingy defense, along with a productive offense, led to the title win. The Glads took a 16-9 first-quarter lead and then outscored the Hornets 10-6 in the second period to go into halftime with a 26-15 advantage.

A low-scoring third stanza saw Fowlerville with 9 points to Williamston's 6 to put the local cagers ahead 35-21. The teams played fairly even, scoring-wise, in the final quarter with the Glads getting 13 points to the Hornets 12.

It was the rubber match between the CAAC White

Division rivals. Williamston had won the first meeting at the Hornets' court, but the Gladiators took the second game at their home gym. The Hornets won the league title, their only loss being to Fowlerville. The Gladiators, meanwhile, had two other conference defeats to finish the CAAC campaign with 3 losses.

The win was the team's 18th this season, the most ever for a Fowlerville girls basketball varsity squad.

St. Joseph Mercy Livingston's annual charity ball to help surgical services

St. Joseph Mercy Livingston will host more than 400 business leaders and community members at its annual charity ball being held at Crystal Gardens Banquet Center in Howell on Saturday, April 21, 2018. This year's ball, Sock Hop Soirée, will involve a fun and festive 1950's theme. Funds raised will benefit the enhancement of surgical services at St. Joe's Livingston and the St. Joseph Mercy Brighton Health Center, which includes construction of new operating rooms, the purchase of advanced technology, and the expansion of inpatient and outpatient surgical procedures being offered.

The surgical service upgrades are part of St. Joe's Livingston and Brighton's Transformation Project, a $41.1 million investment to revolutionize healthcare and better serve patients and families close to home, in Livingston County. Together, St. Joe's Livingston and Brighton perform over 4,600 surgical procedures each year, many of which are being performed on a recently acquired da Vinci® Si robotic surgery system. That number is expected to increase to 5,500 over accent who says she's a spy. That night, she is murdered, and Richard Hannay becomes the main suspect! Hannay, feeling trapped, is on the lam, chased by the police and a mysterious spy organization. Filled with inventive stagecraft and slapstick humor, this is a night of comedy not to be missed.

The play is directed by Betsy Ording. Starring are Wyatt Arledge as Richard Hannay, Audrey Trinkka as Pamela: the woman on the train, and Mikenna Peckens as the mysterious spy. Cole Tomlin and Curtis Wormsbacher each play a whole host of characters--sometimes simultaneously, and many other students perform a variety of other characters, including pilots, thugs, and crocodile hunters.

The Equipping Power of God’s Word

Pay attention and turn your ear to the sayings of the wise; apply your heart to what I teach, for it is pleasing when you keep them in your heart and have all of them ready on your lips. So that your trust may be in the Lord, I teach you today, even you. Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge, teaching you to be honest and to speak the truth, so that you bring back truthful reports to those you serve? (Proverbs 22:17-22)

It can be said that the Bible was written to convict sinners of their sins and to equip believers for service. Jesus’s last instructions to his disciples before leaving the earth was, “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you” (Matthew 28:19-20).

It is an awesome and sometimes frightening responsibility to convey the message of God to his people. But as a believer and follower of Jesus, that is exactly what I have been charged to do, and anyone else who professes to be a Christian has the same responsibility. “Yes, that means you, if you are a Christian.”

The Word of God equips us to proclaim the message that God has for the world. It says in 2 Timothy 3:16-17 “All scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. ”

God’s Word equips us for evangelism. If you read Acts 8:26-35, you will see that Philip, the evangelist, uses Isaiah 53 to point the Ethiopian eunuch toward Christ.

When we study God’s Word and allow the power of the Holy Spirit to take control of our lives, we are better equipped to share the message of the gospel to a lost world that is in desperate need of a spiritual revival.

God’s Word equips us to stand tall and to resist the temptations that the enemy of God will send our way. When Jesus was sent into the wilderness to be tempted by Satan for forty days, he used the scriptures to rebuke Satan, and because of his faith in his Holy Father, God, he was able to resist Satan’s offer to renounce God and follow him.

God’s word also equips us to face the trials and difficulties of this earthly life. The next time you find yourself feeling depressed, defeated or overwhelmed by the loss of a loved one, the pain of some illness, or any other insurmountable problem that threatens to destroy your joy and your peace, turn to the Word of God. It may not solve your issue but it will give you the strength to withstand whatever it is you’re going through, and it will make you stronger when the next catastrophe comes along.

God’s Word equips us for using our spiritual gifts from God. “God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another” (1Peter 4:10). We all have some form of spiritual gifts. A spiritual gift is an ability given by the Holy Spirit to the believer for the purpose of edifying the church and glorifying God. In Ephesians 1:17-19 and 4:7, 11-14, Paul says a knowledge of God’s Word will provide us with the maturity we need, to use our gifts in the most effective way.

So many people are going through life and dying without ever realizing that they have spiritual gifts given to them by the Holy Spirit. The reason being, they never seriously get into the Word of God and allow the power of God’s Holy Word to transform them into dedicated followers of Christ.

God’s Word equips us for waging war against Satan. Sin is any act or transgression that endangers our ideal relationship with God. In Romans 7:14-25, the Apostle Paul outlines his struggle with sin. This battle that raged in Paul, rages in every follower of Jesus Christ. There have been so many times in my life when I asked myself the question “Why?” Why did I act the way I did? Why did I say what I said? Why did I not speak up when I should have? Why did I commit such a deadly sin? And the “Whys” go on and on and on.

In the book of Ephesians 6:10-17, Paul likens the believer’s armor to that used by Roman foot soldiers. In the comparison, the Word of God is likened to the soldier’s sword. “...and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.”(Eph. 6:17b)

In today’s world, people need to hear the Word of God more than anything else. But Paul says we are not just to be hearers of the Word but we must also be doers of the “Word.” “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed. (James 1:22-25).

When it comes to carrying out the Great Commission as Jesus commanded in Matthew 28:19-20, Many people fail because they are not adequately equipped with the wisdom and knowledge of God’s Holy Word. Therefore, they do not have the power of the Holy Spirit actively working to empower them.

I encourage you to pick up your Bible and allow the transforming power of the scriptures to transform you into a more loyal and dedicated disciple of Jesus Christ. It will equip you to be a better person in every area of your life.

Senior Spotlight—Caleb Kubiak

By Gracelyn Hull

This week's featured senior is Caleb Kubiak. Kubiak is the son of Mike and Tina Kubiak and the brother to Gavin Kubiak who is in 10th grade. Kubiak has attended Webberville Schools since kindergarten. Not only is Kubiak a great student and athlete, but he is known for his friendship and his hard work ethic.

“He will always be there for you,” said friend and fellow senior Bret Parisian “You can always talk to him about anything.”

Throughout high school, Kubiak has focused on his academics and is ranked in the Top Ten of his class while still putting in regular hours on his family farm.

“He has grown to take on more responsibility especially at the farm,” said retired ag science teacher, William Wheeler “He has done a great job applying the skills he’s learned at AIS to his work.”

As a junior, Kubiak enrolled in Eaton RESA’s AIS program for diesel equipment.

“AIS is really cool because you get hands on experiences,” said Kubiak. “It helped me excel in the diesel mechanic field.”

During Kubiak’s high school career, he has participated in baseball for two years and football for four. Kubiak played baseball his freshman and sophomore year where he played many different positions. In football, Kubiak played long snapper and wide receiver. Kubiak was a key player on the team and always had great enthusiasm.

“Caleb was always very energetic,” said teammate Benjamin Theriault. “It was always fun to be on the field with him.”

Kubiak has been a member of the FFA. His top honors include a gold State Degree and a Proficiency Award in Diversified Crop Production.

“Caleb has been instrumental in the Webberville FFA Chapter’s achievements. He has participated in the State Broiler Contest, competed in the State Skills Contest and leadership contests, and has been committed to helping in our community garden,” said FFA Advisor Colleen Scott Keiser. “He brings a wealth of enthusiasm and excitement for agriculture. He shines when he gives back to community, school, and neighbors. His kind and generous nature paired with his commitment to his family and community constantly impresses me.”

After graduation, Kubiak plans to attend Lansing Community College to study diesel tech and he is grateful for what Webberville has had to offer.

“Webberville has always been a great place to live,” said Kubiak. “It’s great because you get the chance to know everyone.”

Free Vision Screening for Children to be offered at Webberville Easter Egg Hunt

A Free Vision Screening for Children is being offered during the Webberville Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 31, starting at 10a.m. at the Webberville High School football field. The screening is sponsored by the Webberville Lions Club and is part of the group’s Project KIDSight. The screening is primarily intended for children ages one to six, but older children are welcome.

Project KIDSight is a vision screening program to detect potential vision disorders in children that can cause permanent vision loss when treatment is delayed. Through Project KIDSight, your child’s vision will be tested with a high tech camera that will quickly (1 second) and accurately determine whether your child’s vision is a Pass or a Refer. When the result of the vision screening is a Refer, the child should be examined by an ophthalmologist or optometrist as soon as possible.

Five percent of all preschool age children experience vision loss from an undetected vision disorder, and treatment options increase when vision problems are detected early in a child’s life. Normal vision can usually be restored with eye glasses, contact lenses and sometimes patching.

A consent form attached must be filled out before the free screening. If you have any questions contact, “Chad McCann” <cmccann@lmsf.net>

“Our annual Fur Ball is a win-win for everyone. ATTENTION SHOULDER PAIN SUFFERERS
(Between The Ages of 40 and 75 Years of Age)

• Join Us For This Special FREE Workshop •
How To Relieve Shoulder Pain & Overcome Most Rotator Cuff Injuries Without Injections or Surgery!

Do You Have Shoulder Pain with Any of the Following Day to Day Activities?

- ➡ Reaching or lifting overhead
- ➡ Reaching behind your back
- ➡ Reaching into the back seat of your car
- ➡ While You Sleep
- ➡ Recreational or sporting activities such as gardening, golfing and tennis

If You answered YES to any of the above questions, then you should definitely plan to attend our workshop!

When a person has shoulder pain or a rotator cuff injury, they will commonly do one of 3 things:

- Try to ignore the problem, hoping it will get better...
- Take medication to mask the problem, until that no longer works....
- Search for a solution on the internet, which often makes the problem worse!

But instead, what usually happens is the pain becomes more severe, loss of motion then starts to occur and in turn the rotator cuff muscles or the shoulder joint becomes damaged!

We know this, because we have treated literally 1000s of individuals over the years with shoulder problems, helping many avoid shoulder surgery and others after their surgery (which in some cases could have been avoided!)

‘When I injured my shoulder in a motor cycle accident, my pain was a 10/10 when I 1st started my therapy at Mid-Michigan, while after just a few weeks, my pain was less, I was able to sleep and I was back to work part-time’ Judy M.

7TH GRADE GIRLS BASKETBALL

The 7th grade girls finished their season on Feb. 28th in a very physical battle. Both teams fell short, but it was not for a lack of hustle and effort. Shots didn't fall and it was a very physical match up for both squads.
The B team was led by Teela Theibert with 4 points, while Ava Campbell added 2. Alexis Hovorka, Kaydence Culbertson, Gracie Hancock, Alaina Borowy and Sam Wilt gave great effort on the boards and provided a spark for the Glads defensively.
The A team was led by Brooke Simon with 7 points, while Ava Kuch and Julia Johnson both chipped in 3 each. The girls couldn't get their shots to fall, but battled the entire 4 quarters. Ava Kuch and Katie Bigos both led the team in rebounds, while Katie Tait, Zalyn Rinehart, Heidi Curd and Leyna Baumgartner played great defense and forced quite a few turnovers with their tenacious play.

8TH GRADE GIRLS BASKETBALL

The girls 8th graders took on the Chieftains of Okemos on Feb. 28th at home to finish off the season. The B team played well but ended up short, losing 10-37. Kaitlyn Orr and Raelynn Haan each added 2 points, Emma Crider and Faith Thomason tied for leading scorer, both draining three's in the third quarter.
The A team held on to an exciting lead to win 34-32 in the last seconds of the game. Andrea Ogden had 1 key point to hold the lead late in the 4th quarter, Lindsay Limieux went 2 for 2 from the line again in the fourth quarter, Zoey Yvergens had a basket and a free throw also in the fourth quarter for 3 points, Ysenia Depa played a great game defensively and added 7 points, Levee Clark had an excellent defensive game and lead the Gladiator scoring with 21 points. As a team, the Glads went 7 for 9 from the free throw line in the fourth quarter to hold on to the win. Everyone contributed, with defense, rebounding and positive attitudes. Thank you Lady Glads for an enjoyable season.

Michigan House Report

By Dr. Hank Vaupel,
47th District

During this week’s Health Policy Committee meeting, I was pleased to welcome state Rep. Bronna Kahle, of Adrian, to deliver testimony on a bill she sponsored to ensure hospice care providers are able to deliver the best end-of-life care possible.

Last year, we passed an opioid reform package which requires all prescribers to consult a computer database to ensure the patient is not a known drug abuser. While I stand by this legislation, it has inadvertently created a roadblock for hospice care professionals who need immediate access to pain relief for patients receiving end-of-life care. These people are not shopping for drugs, they are in serious pain and should be given the proper care during their transition in the final days of their lives. I appreciate Amy Francoeur, with Hospice of Lenawee, who came to Lansing to deliver testimony about this bill.

The committee will vote on the measure in the coming weeks.

This week, I kicked off March is Reading Month by reading to nine classes in Voyager, Northwest, and Challenger Elementary Schools in Howell. I enjoy talking with the students about the importance of being a good reader and the vital role that it will play throughout their lives no matter what profession they choose. I will be visiting more schools in Howell, Hartland, and Fowlerville throughout the rest of the month.

On Monday, I attended the Livingston State of the County address presented by County Commissioner Don Parker. It was encouraging to see the strong state of the county with further increases reported in employment, household income and building permits. I was also present for a positive Tyrone State of the Township report given by Supervisor Mike Cunningham and approval of the township budget for the next fiscal year.

Fowlerville Garden Club hosting Rose & Hydrangea Presentation

The Fowlerville Garden Club is hosting guest speakers from Bordine’s at our upcoming Wednesday, March 14 ,meeting. Our speakers will be giving a presentation on growing and caring for roses and hydrangeas.

The public is invited to this free event to be held at the Fowlerville VFW Hall, 215 Veterans Drive. Refreshments will be served at 6:30 PM and our presentation will begin promptly at 7:00 PM. Join us for an informative session on roses and hydrangeas, some of the most beautiful and popular outdoor plants.

I was happy to join with Sen. Joe Hune in presenting a state tribute to Doug Walters of Camper Trailer Parts & Repair, Inc. for his contributions to help those with mental health challenges. Doug has partnered his Fowlerville business with Genesis House to assist clubhouse members with employment needs. Thank you, Doug, for your commitment to improving the lives of those in our community.

During session this past week, I was honored to welcome and recognize members from The Youth Connection to the House of Representatives. They do great work for the young people in our communities, and I was pleased to have them visit.

I hope you will be able to join me for my next round of office hours taking place Friday, March 16 at the following times and locations:

- 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. at Fowlerville Farms, 941 S. Grand Ave. in Fowlerville;
- 4 to 5 p.m. at Biggby Coffee, 11325 W. Highland Road in Hartland; and
- 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. at All Star Coney Island, 934 Michigan Ave. in Howell.

I look forward to seeing you there and hearing your thoughts!

If you have any ideas, comments or questions for my office, please do not hesitate to call us at 517-373-8835 or send an email to HankVaupel@house.mi.gov. We are happy to hear from you!
